

La risorsa lavorerà in smart working dando però la disponibilità (più formale che sostanziale) a brevi trasferte (rimborsate extra), stimate in 1 trasferta di 2 gg ogni 2 mesi a bari e 1gg ogni 30 a guidonia./roma.

e' fondamentale l'inglese.

Language skills:

English

Italian

Your Role:

You communicate and collaborate effectively with other members of the network team, the IT organization and the business community.

You act as an integral part of the global the network team providing support and services primarily during EMEA business hours.

You work in a collaborative manner to deliver Network projects for the business.

You handle support and escalation activities for projects that you are assigned.

You work outside of normal business hours may be required as necessitated by business need

You enforce network and network security standards throughout the infrastructure and provide a positive and professional user experience at all times when engaging both internal and external users.

You are part of a performance driven, risk taking culture that promotes open and honest feedback.

Who you are:

3 years minimum of hands-on experience in full-cycle design, engineering, configuration and administration of routers & switches, firewalls, multi-segment networks and MPLS WANs

Bachelor's degree or IT / Network Related Certifications preferred

Knowledge of enterprise wired and wireless network technologies

Knowledge of SD-WAN architectures and concepts

Knowledge of various networking protocols and technologies such as HTTP – HTTPS – DNS – VPN (IPSec/SSL) - TCP/IP stack – FTP – TFTP – SMTP - IEEE Standards – QoS – VoIP (H.323, SIP) OSPF, MPLS, ACL's, eBGP /iBGP, 802.1D/W, Policy Based and Static routing, Fiber Channel over Ethernet, VRF and Virtual Device Contexts

Excellent organizational and time management skills

Highly developed interpersonal and teamwork skills

Potential out-of-business hours maintenance work, as required

Excellent analytical, problem-solving skills

The ability to thrive in a fast paced and growing environment, while using sound judgment to resolve complex issues and challenges.

Comfortable initiating change. Is able to handle the stress related to balancing multiple issues and perspectives.

Ability to travel (10%)